ASX Announcement

WORLEYPARSONS LIMITED (ASX:WOR)

WorleyParsons announces EPCM award from Emirates Aluminium

WorleyParsons is pleased to announce an engineering, procurement and construction management (EPCM) tender win for Emirates Aluminium (EMAL). WorleyParsons will perform the contract in joint venture with SNC-Lavalin. The contract is for the first phase of the US$6 billion Taweelah aluminium smelter complex in Abu Dhabi. The project comprises a smelter of 700,000 tonnes capacity plus a 2,000 MW power plant and associated facilities. Upon completion of the second phase, the plant will be the largest aluminium smelter in the world.

EMAL is a joint venture company established by Dubai Aluminium Company DUBAL, and Mubadala Development Company, an investment vehicle of the Government of Abu Dhabi. The details of the award are included in the attached announcement from EMAL.

The EPCM contract is valued at a range of US$75 million to $85 million to WorleyParsons, which has a minimum 33% share of the joint venture with SNC-Lavalin. WorleyParsons will utilise its UAE operations in conjunction with its Melbourne and Beijing offices to provide the EPCM services under the contract with EMAL.

The award is seen as a significant win for WorleyParsons, providing the Company with both growth opportunities and further diversification in the Middle East market.

WorleyParsons' Chief Executive, John Grill, said "We see Emirates Aluminium as a strategic client. They have a powerful combination of technology, quality management, strategic geographical positioning and ambitious growth plans. We plan to grow on our success in this tender process to build a long term, successful relationship with EMAL.

"This project represents one of the largest EPCM project awards in the UAE in many years. We plan to demonstrate, with a successful project, that the EPCM model is the most effective model for project delivery, particularly in the current climate of competition for resources.

"The win provides an avenue for the expansion of our extremely strong Aluminium capability into a global business to match the WorleyParsons footprint.

"The co-operation with SNC-Lavalin on this proposal builds on the success we are seeing on the Olympic Dam expansion project."

ASX Announcement

WORLEYPARSONS LIMITED (ASX: WOR)

2007 EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. My name is Ron McNeilly and I am the Chairman of WorleyParsons Limited.

On behalf of the board I would like to welcome you to this Extraordinary General Meeting.

I am pleased to welcome Larry Benke, President of Colt, who joins us here today for the first time, as part of the WorleyParsons Group – where he heads up our expanded Canadian operations. Larry has also been appointed as an alternate director for Bill Hall. Welcome Larry – we are delighted to have you here.

As you will be aware, in early February we announced the acquisition of the Colt Companies for A$1,133 million. The acquisition was funded by a combination of a pro rata renounceable Institutional Entitlement Offer and Retail Entitlement Offer, the issue of Exchangeable Shares to the vendors, and new debt facilities.

You will recall that the Colt vendors received exchangeable shares as part of the consideration for the acquisition of The Colt Companies. The issue of exchangeable shares was seen as an important feature of the acquisition, serving to align the interests of our Canadian employees with those of WorleyParsons shareholders and providing an important retention mechanism for key employees of Colt.

The intended effect of the Special Voting Share in addition to the exchangeable shares is to replicate the economic effect of issuing ordinary shares in WorleyParsons.

On 13 February we announced that the Institutional Entitlement Offer of 16.4 million new shares, had been successfully completed, raising $345 million. It was particularly pleasing that a large proportion of institutional shareholders took up their entitlements.

We subsequently successfully completed the Retail Entitlement Offer, raising a further $135 million through the issue of 6.4 million new shares.

The acquisition of Colt was completed on 10 March 2007.

Before I move on to the purpose of today's meeting I would like to take a few minutes to recap the rationale for this acquisition, and the benefits we believe it will deliver for the Group as a whole.

A number of factors make this acquisition a compelling one for WorleyParsons. The combination of Colt's business with WorleyParsons' substantial existing Canadian operations, creates a group capable of capitalising on the significant untapped demand in the Canadian market.

we can draw on expertise from within the Group gained in similar situations, most recently during the successful integration of Parsons E&C.

Our CEO John Grill and Larry Benke have recently visited Colt's offices in Canada and Alaska to meet with people at all levels of the organisation. I can report that the response to their visit, from both staff and clients, was very positive. We have received similar acceptance from the market.

The Board is pleased with how smoothly this acquisition was accomplished, and would like to thank all those involved in making it so. We move forward with optimism, confident of the benefits the Combined Group has the potential to deliver while being completely realistic about the amount of work ahead of us.

I would also like to thank all our shareholders for their continued confidence in us. The interest shown by the market in our recent capital raising is particularly pleasing.

At this time I am also able to confirm the guidance that we gave the market at the release of the financial results for the half year ended 31 December 2006: that, we expect the markets for WorleyParsons' services will continue to be strong. Our key markets and sectors are experiencing positive conditions and we are well positioned to respond to these opportunities. Subject to conditions remaining favourable in these markets we expect to achieve increased earnings in 2007.

The company continues to evaluate opportunities for new business growth that will add to our existing capabilities and provide value for our shareholders.

ASX Announcement

WORLEYPARSONS LIMITED (ASX:WOR)

Further information regarding WorleyParsons Entitlement Offer

WorleyParsons Limited ("WorleyParsons") refers to the current one for nine Entitlement Offer of ordinary shares.

Last week the High Court handed down its decision in The Commissioner of Taxation v McNeil. The case did not concern an entitlement offer of shares, and its impact, if any, in relation to such offers is not yet clear. However, WorleyParsons understands that the Australian Taxation Office is currently considering the impact of the decision in relation to such offers.

WorleyParsons is not in a position at this stage to provide any guidance on the impact of the decision for WorleyParsons' shareholders in connection with the Entitlement Offer, but will seek to clarify the position with the Australian Taxation Office.
